MEMORANDUM FOR: Chief, Management Staff

SUBJECT : [REDACTED]

25X1A9a

1. As you are aware, subject employee has been assigned to a Career Development Slot for training which I am sponsoring as Head of the Administration Career Service. He will occupy this assignment for a period of approximately two years, and will then be assigned to an appropriate Administrative Officer position, either field or departmental.

2. The first phase of [REDACTED] training is a four-month tour of duty with your Staff. This duty will provide [REDACTED] with experience which will equip him to perform better the diversified duties of an Administrative Officer. It is believed, furthermore, that your Staff will benefit from this arrangement, since [REDACTED] is a very capable employee with great potential for all phases of administrative work, and since you will be able to use him productively for at least three months.

4. This development plan for [REDACTED] was initiated because he is an employee of considerable promise. I would appreciate it very much if you could take an active personal interest in his training and development, and if you would stimulate this same interest in those with whom [REDACTED] will associate in your Staff. I would also appreciate receiving a Fitness Report and your informal evaluation of [REDACTED] at the expiration of his duty with you.
